

Omri Boehm
Curriculum Vitae/
Publications List

Born in Gilon, Israel, 1979

Positions

2010-	New School for Social Research, NY Assistant Professor (beginning Sept. 2010)	United States
2010-2011	Ludwig Maximilian Universität, Munich Excellence Research fellowship	Germany

Education

2003-2009	Yale University Ph.D, MA, M.Phil Dissertation: "Kant's Critique of Spinoza" (Advisors: Michael Della Rocca, Karsten Harries)	United States
2005-06	University of Heidelberg Exchange scholar at the Philosophy Department	Germany
2000-04	Tel Aviv University BA, Adi Lautman Interdisciplinary Program for Outstanding Students/The Cohen Institute for the History and Philosophy of the Sciences and Ideas	Israel

Areas of Specialization

Kant, Early Modern Philosophy

Scholarships/Awards/Grants

2010-	LMU-Munich Excellence Research Fellowship
2007-08	Yale University Whiting-Leylan Fellowship
2006-07	Yale University Teaching Prize
2005-06	Heidelberg University scholarship for visiting research scholar
2002-03	Shalem Center research fellowship (Jerusalem)
2000-04	Adi Lautman Award for Outstanding Students (Tel-Aviv University)
2002	Adi Lautman excellence award

Teaching Experience

- 2009 Fall Kant's Concepts of Nature, instructor, seminar co-taught with Karsten Harries, (Philosophy Department, Yale University)
- 2008 Spring Introduction to Political Philosophy, teaching assistant for Thomas Pogge (Philosophy Department, Yale University)
- 2008 Fall Kant's Doctrine of Illusion: a Reading of the Critique's Dialectic, instructor, undergraduate seminar (Philosophy Department, Yale University)
- 2007 Spring Nietzsche, teaching assistant for James Kreines (Philosophy Department, Yale University)
- 2006 Fall Kant's Critique of Pure Reason, teaching assistant for James Kreines (Philosophy Department, Yale University)

Other

- 2009 Reviewer, Yale University Press
- 1997-2000 Obligatory Military Service, Israel

Publications

- Book The Binding of Isaac: A Religious Model of Disobedience (New York/London: Continuum Publishing, 2007)
- Articles “Kant and Spinoza Debating the Third Antinomy,” in M. Della Rocca (ed.), The Oxford Handbook of Spinoza (Oxford/New York: Oxford University Press, 2009 [forthcoming])
- “The First Antinomy and Spinoza,” British Journal for the History of Philosophy (2010 [forthcoming])
- “Kant’s Idea of the Unconditioned and Spinoza’s,” in ed. E. Förster and I. Melamed Spinoza and the German Idealism (Cambridge: Cambridge University Press [forthcoming])
- “Child Sacrifice, Ethical Responsibility and the Existence of the People of Israel,” Vetus Testamentum 54 (April 2004)
- “The Binding of Isaac: an Inner-Biblical Polemic on the Question of Disobeying a Manifestly Illegal Order,” Vetus Testamentum 52 (January 2001)

Selected Presentations

- “The Principle of Sufficient Reason and the Ontological Argument”
Transformations of Mind (Leibniz Research Group) [Invited Paper]
Humboldt Universität, Berlin, April 2010

- “Kant’s Idea of the Unconditioned and Spinoza’s”
Kant and German Idealism conference at Johns Hopkins University [invited paper]
May 2010
- “Faith, Reason and Disobedience: The Binding of Isaac and the Place of the Biblical Text in Kierkegaard and Kant”
Kierkegaard im Kontext des Deutschen Idealismus, Siemens Stiftung, Munich 2010
- Reply to Martin Lin’s “Rationalism and Necessitarianism”
SEMPY (Yale Society for Early Modern Philosophy), New Haven, USA, October 2009
- “Descartes and Kant on Self-Knowledge and the Experience of Freedom”
SEMPY, New Haven, USA, October 2008
- “Philosophical Anthropomorphism: Between God’s Body and Human Rationality”
Annual Interdisciplinary Conference, Tel Aviv University, Israel, August 2002
- “The Binding of Isaac: a Polemic on the Question of God’s Superiority over the Ethical”
International Conference for the Study of Biblical Theology, Basel, Switzerland.
August 2001